Rep. Tim Crosgrove, Utah State Legislature, District 44

Born and raised in Utah, Tim Cosgrove received his Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science with a minor in English from Weber State University in 1992. In 1995 he received his Master of Arts degree in Political Management with an emphasis in Public Policy from George Washington University in Washington D.C.

Tim is a Child Advocate at Primary Children's Medical Center in Salt Lake City. Tim ran for Utah House of Representatives and was elected in 2004 serving the people in District 44 Murray / Midvale.

Some of the legislative success that Tim has had while in office is sponsoring and passing legislation for internet crimes against children, earned income tax credits, funding for school library books, counseling for families of veterans; child motor vehicle safety restraints, property tax relief for seniors with dependents, Ethics Reform, and Removing License Impediments for Military Spouses and Service Members Leaving the Military. Tim serves on the Revenue and Taxation, Ethics, Health and Human Services and Public Education Appropriations committees. Current board and community participation include: Intermountain Medical Center Community Board, The Living Planet Aquarium, and the Murray Exchange Club.

Past Board and Community Involvement Participation:

Utah Poison Control Center Board of Directors

Murray Max Soccer Club President

Utah State PTA Health Commissioner

Coached Murray girls Jr. Jazz Basketball

Utah Association for the Early Education of Young Children

Hold On To Dear Life Advisory Board, Primary Children's Medical Center

Utah Safe Kids Coalition Board of Directors

National Governor's Association Interdisciplinary Network on School-Health

Partnerships Board of Directors

Utah Cardiovascular Health Alliance Board Member

Past Longview Elementary PTA Legislative Vice President

Past Murray School District Council PTA Legislative Vice President

Tim is married to Diane, (whom he met while attending Weber), and has four children. In his spare time he enjoys watching his daughters play basketball, and his sons playing soccer and baseball. Tim likes weightlifting, reading, volunteering in his community and family travel.